UNION MAY NOT PROVE MUCH PRACTICAL VALUE

German Cavalry Has Cut Its Way to a Junction With the Bulgarians—The Practical Results of the Union Are to be Proven—Paris Says German Attacks Were Repulsed and Claims Small Advantages—Germans on the Russian Front Are on the Defensive and the German Initiative Seems to Have Been Spent—Bulgarians Defeated in Babuna Pass—Two British Divisions on Bulgarian Front and Others Following—Bulgarian Guns Hammering on Nish the Serbian Capital—King George Is Recovering—Berlin Claims Important Victory and Many Prisoners Captured.

[By Associated Press.] London, Nov. 5.—The French headquarters at Salonika admit the German cavalry has effected a junction with the Bulgarians in the Negoting section, but assert it is doubtful whether the union will be practical, as Negoting is on the Danube where only the river separates Rumania from Serbia and Bulgaria.

Paris says the Germans attempted a surprise attack on the French trenches between Oise and Aisne, but it was futile.

The Austro-Germans on the Russian front are now occupied with defensive tactics, although they seem to be holding their own. The German's own initiative apparently has been spent.

Pierce Russian attacks are recorded along the Dvina and Strips.

An Athens dispatch says the Bulgarians were defeated in a three-day battle in Babuna Pass.

Two British divisions are approaching along the Bulgarian front and more are following.

French officials say an aerial squadron bombarded the building in Dor-nach, Alsace, where the Germans have been manufacturing gas.

Two fresh German attacks on the French trenches at Lacourtine were repulsed.

NISH BOMBARDMENT BEGUN. [By Associated Press.] Paris, Nov. 5.—Bulgarian artillery has violently bombarded the advanced forts of Nish, says a dispatch to the Matin. The Bulgarians have captured Nish Kavala, two hours' march from Nish.

TO FILL BIG WAR ORDERS. [By Associated Press.] Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 5.—A new plant is being erected here to fill a $7,000,000 contract for projectiles for a foreign government.

KING RECOVERING. [By Associated Press.] London, Nov. 5.—The King is recovering slowly from his recent fall.

BERLIN CLAIMS GREAT VICTORY. [By Associated Press.] Berlin, Nov. 5.—(Official Bulletin.)

The Bulgarians completely defeated northeast of Philip, the French expeditionary forces landed at Salonika. Part of the French contingent was routed and part made prisoners.

Advances on the Serbian lines have been made by the Germans, taking 2,700 prisoners.

UNITED STATES SENDS PROTEST. [By Associated Press.] Washington, Nov. 5.—Protests were sent to Great Britain today by the State Department against interference with American packing house shipments on the Norwegian-American steamer Kristianstad, sailing from New York.

MAYOR HARRIS INVITED.

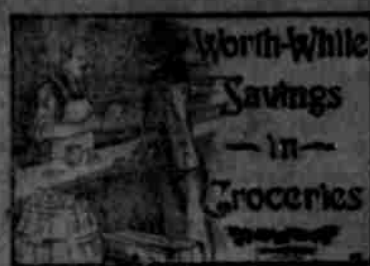

Commanded to Appear in Houston for Initiation as a "Red Rooster."

Mayor Harris has received an invitation from Mayor Ben Campbell of Houston to attend a meeting of the Red Rooster Club of that city on next Tuesday, November 9. In fact, he is commanded to be there for initiation into the inner circles of the Red Rooster organization. The ceremonies will be held at the Rice Hotel Tuesday evening at 7:30. The invitation is printed in colors and the illustrations are clearly indicative of the fun that awaits the participants. One picture shows the candidate for initiation into the order of "High Cockatoo" with his head on the block and the executioner standing over him with an axe raised ready to strike. Another where he has been kicked from an alrship and was impaled on the steeple of the city hall. Another shows him in pugilistic combat with a female colored aviator; another with the hose turned on him, the whole concluding with the torpedoing of the ship on which the Red Rooster candidates are sailing, by a submarine. It is plain to be seen there is trouble ahead for Mayor Harris, yet by golly! we'll bet it is a kind of "sad, sweet sorrow."

The "Special."

"Well, how do you think you'll get on?" said the sergeant to the new special constable, who had been told off for night duty.

"Oh, I'll be all right," he said; "my mother's coming round with me for the first night or two."—Liverpool Post.

BANDITS AGAIN FIRE ON U. S. TROOPS

[By Associated Press.] Brownsville, Tex., Nov. 5.—Eleven United States soldiers were fired on last night near Mercedes, thirty-five miles from here, according to a report sent to Fort Brown today. There were no casualties. Twenty shots were fired. A search is being made for the bandits supposed to have done the shooting.

REPORTED OUTLINE OF VILLA'S PLANS

Wants Guaymas as Base Where He Can Get Arms and Then to Mexico City.

[By Associated Press.] Washington, Nov. 5.—Mexican advisers say the Villa withdrawal to Naco is a part of the movement through the interior to the Pacific coast to take Guaymas as a base and then move on to Mexico City. The American embargo on arms would not be effective at Guaymas.

BRYAN TAKES ISSUE WITH PRES. WILSON

Says Wilson's Defense Views Are Menace to Peace and Challenge to Christianity.

[By Associated Press.] Washington, Nov. 5.—William J. Bryan, former Secretary of State, took issue with President Wilson's views on National defense in a formal statement today. The President's views are characterized as a menace to peace and safety and a challenge to the spirit of Christianity. The former Secretary said he read the speech with sorrow and concern. President Wilson is doing what he believes his duty, though, Mr. Bryan said, he could not criticize his motives, but was compelled to dissent from his conclusions.

Mr. Bryan further added: "This Nation won its position in the world without resorting to the club or totting a pistol. Why reversed the policy now? The President himself admits there is no reason for the change. We're spending more than two hundred and fifty million dollars yearly on preparedness, ten times as much as we are spending on agriculture. A change at this time is not only unnecessary, but a menace to the National health."

2,000 WOMEN IN SERBIAN ARMY

Other Battalions Being Organized and Women Fight With Husbands and Brothers.

[By Associated Press.] London, Nov. 5.—"There were nearly 2,000 women in Serbia's army when I left, and more women soldiers were being organized," said Dr. Grulich, a Serbian army doctor, now in London, Thursday. The women are not in special battalions. Some of them wear the complete uniform of a soldier for the sake of comfort. Others wear skirts with a blue tunic. The younger women go with their brothers or their husbands. The women are of every class and we can not prevent them from serving. They inspire the men with whom they march and serve shoulder to shoulder in the trenches.

"These women are not afraid. Nobody in Serbia is afraid, and the women in the ranks don't lose their nerve under fire."

ARE HELD BY VILLA AND NOT KILLED

Four Americans Reported Killed at Agua Prieta Are Villa Prisoners.

[By Associated Press.] Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 5.—Dr. Thigpen and Miller and Chantreux Pyland and Wilson, reported killed by General Calles's shell fire at Agua Prieta, are Villa prisoners at Yuma Verde, according to a dispatch who has arrived from there. The dispatch said he saw the men with Villa last night, but could not learn why they were being held.

The theory is advanced that Villa needs the surgeons' care for his wounded and took Drs. Thigpen and Miller, reporting their deaths as a ruse, to attend his troops without being subject to inquiry. Both are prominent surgeons. General Funston went to Naco today to get Villa's report on the reported American deaths. Villa told a different story. General Obregon is expected tonight to take command of the Chiriquito troops. General Calles's leadership has caused some dissatisfaction.
